Epiphany: The Lamb Revealed

Dear Parishioners,

The Epiphany season invites us not simply to remember a past event, but to contemplate a revelation that continues to unfold: Jesus Christ made known as the Savior of the world. In the Gospel according to Saint John (1:29–34), we are drawn into a powerful moment of witness. John the Baptist sees Jesus coming toward him and proclaims, “Here is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.”

Pope Benedict XVI often emphasized that Christianity begins not with an idea or a moral code, but with an encounter—with a Person. In this Gospel passage, John the Baptist embodies that truth. He does not present a theory about Jesus; he points to Him. He recognizes in Jesus the Lamb, the One who offers Himself in love for the salvation of humanity. This image recalls the Passover lamb, whose blood brought deliverance, and it anticipates the Cross, where Christ freely gives Himself to take away the sin of the world.

What is striking is John’s humility and honesty: “I myself did not know him.” Recognition comes not through human calculation, but through divine revelation. John sees the Spirit descend and remain upon Jesus. Pope Benedict XVI reflected deeply on this “remaining” of the Spirit, explaining that it reveals Jesus’ unique relationship with the Father. Jesus is not merely touched by the Spirit for a moment; He lives in perfect communion with God. This is the heart of Epiphany: God revealing Himself, not from a distance, but by dwelling among us.

John’s role is essential. He decreases so that Christ may increase. He teaches us that authentic faith always points beyond itself. In a world that often seeks self-promotion and visibility, John reminds us that true discipleship is about witness, not spotlight. Our mission, like his, is to make Christ visible through our words, actions, and lives.

As we journey through this Epiphany season, the Gospel challenges us to ask: Do we recognize the Lamb of God in our daily lives? Do we allow the Spirit to remain in us, shaping our choices and relationships? And are we willing, like John, to testify with humility and courage that Jesus is truly the Son of God?

May this season renew our vision, deepen our faith, and strengthen our witness, so that Christ may be revealed anew in our parish, our families, and our world.

*In Christ’s love,
Fr. Neemtallah (Edgard) Oneissy*

First Sunday after Epiphany

Book of Isaiah 40:6-11

A voice says, 'Cry out!' And I said, 'What shall I cry?' All people are grass, their constancy is like the flower of the field. The grass withers, the flower fades, when the breath of the LORD blows upon it; surely the people are grass. The grass withers, the flower fades; but the word of our God will stand for ever. Get you up to a high mountain, O Zion, herald of good tidings; lift up your voice with strength, O Jerusalem, herald of good tidings, lift it up, do not fear; say to the cities of Judah, 'Here is your God!' See, the Lord GOD comes with might, and his arm rules for him; his reward is with him, and his recompense before him. He will feed his flock like a shepherd; he will gather the lambs in his arms, and carry them in his bosom, and gently lead the mother sheep.

Second Letter to the Corinthians 10:1-11

I myself, Paul, appeal to you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ I who am humble when face to face with you, but bold towards you when I am away! I ask that when I am present I need not show boldness by daring to oppose those who think we are acting according to human standards. Indeed, we live as human beings, but we do not wage war according to human standards; for the weapons of our warfare are not merely human, but they have divine power to destroy strongholds. We destroy arguments and every proud obstacle raised up against the knowledge of God, and we take every thought captive to obey Christ. We are ready to punish every disobedience when your obedience is complete. Look at what is before your eyes. If you are confident that you belong to Christ, remind yourself of this, that just as you belong to Christ, so also do we. Now, even if I boast a little too much of our authority, which the Lord gave for building you up and not for tearing you down, I will not be ashamed of it. I do not want to seem as though I am trying to frighten you with my letters. For they say, 'His letters are weighty and strong, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.' Let such people understand that what we say by letter when absent, we will also do when present.

Holy Gospel of Jesus Christ according to Saint John 1:29-34

The next day he saw Jesus coming towards him and declared, 'Here is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world! This is he of whom I said, "After me comes a man who ranks ahead of me because he was before me." I myself did not know him; but I came baptizing with water for this reason, that he might be revealed to Israel.' And John testified, 'I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. I myself did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water said to me, "He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit." And I myself have seen and have testified that this is the Son of God.'
